Annual Weekend

24th November – 26th November 2023

As usual there is high demand for single rooms. Please consider sharing if possible. Alternatively, it helps if you share with a non – dancing friend or partner.

We do apologise for the large increase in the cost especially in the current climate. This is beyond our control as HF, and the hotel industry in general, have massively increased their prices.

Previously, HF have allowed clients to transfer their booking to a future date. As they no longer allow this, it is recommended that you take out insurance.
